

09/847257

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

When a process such as printing is effected by using a plurality of apparatuses connected to a network, a proper charge process can be performed so long as at least one of the apparatuses has a charge function. Presence/absence of the charge function is informed to an opponent apparatus, and, if the opponent apparatus has the charge function, an apparatus itself does not effect the charge process.

10

0001237 0504
00050 000000